The Class of '79

ADMINISTRATION

Sr. Susan Maxwell, headmistress, is chief of the Academy. She is responsible for both long range and day to day planning treating spiritual and material welfare of the school. Working with Sr. Maxwell are the four heads of scholastic departments — Sr. Somerville, head of Upper School; Sr. Pendola, head of Middle School; Sr. Dolan, head of Lower School; and Mrs. Bisignano, head of Primary School. Mr. Bruce Peasley, business manager, aids Sr. Maxwell in financial areas. Mrs. Carol Kerr is in charge of Admissions and Public Relations.

CHILD FOR A DAY

*I was a child
Who ran full Of laughter*

*I was a child
who lived for today
My eyes full of sunshine
My heart full of smiles
I was a child for a day*

We were the children . . .

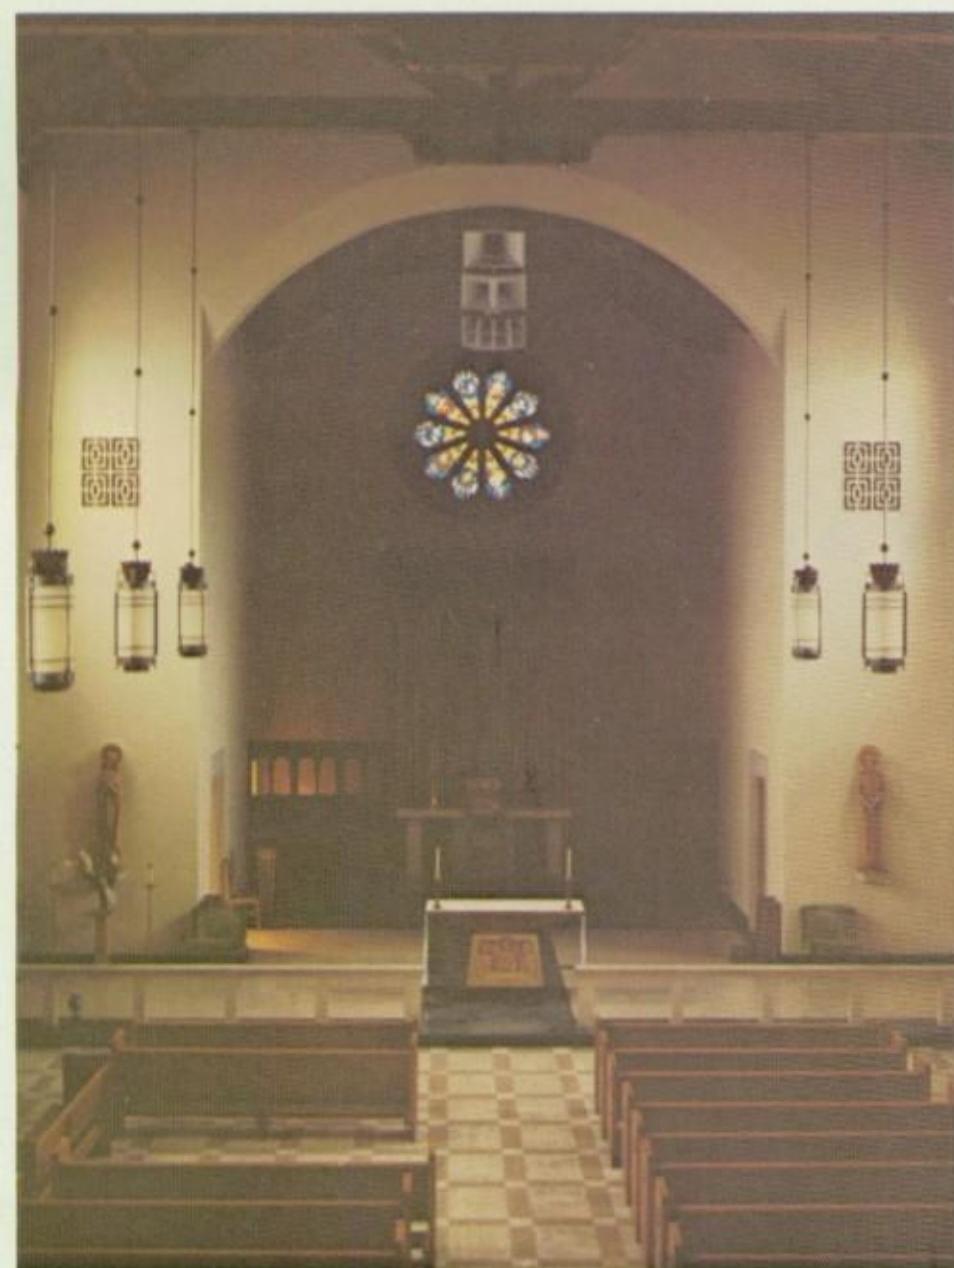

Who sang in the morning.

*We were the children
who laughed at the sun*

Who listened to those who spoke with their wisdom

Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees is a vital part of the Academy of the Sacred Heart. Its large responsibilities are passing and helping prepare, the school's budget, with Mr. Peasley's help, and making sure the operations of the whole school run smoothly. Various committees for specific areas in the school are also set up; these include communications, recruiting, education, and finance. Mr. Frank Cliff, chairman; Sr. Ann Conroy, provincial for the New York province; Mrs. Mayer, Secretary; Mr. Walter Fisher, Treasurer, and a board of members consisting of Sr. M. Burke, Sr. C. Collins, Mr. P. Darin, Mr. J. Gillette, Sr. J. Magnetti, Mr. P. Mirabito, Sr. G. O'Donnell and Sr. S. Maxwell are the ones who are responsible for the efficiency of the school.

Primary School

The Primary School consists of four, five, and six-year old boys and girls. Instead of a structured program, the Primary School has a curriculum based on the concept that learning takes place through activity and experience. Since a child has his own individual pattern of development, the curriculum allows the child to follow a learning experience which leads to a satisfactory conclusion without frustration caused by a rigid reference to subject and time. Each child occupies himself with an educational activity that is interesting and meaningful to him. The studies available to the primary school children are: Art, Christian Formation, Creative Play, Creative Writing, gym, Language Arts, Mathematics, outdoor play, Reading, Science, Spanish, French, stories, cooking, Music, Social Studies, and Drama.

Lower School

The Lower School provides an atmosphere in which children are encouraged to progress through the various academic areas with maximum self-motivation while at the same time receiving very close guidance and individual attention as a result of the low student to teacher ratio. Classrooms are centers of academic interest rather than contained rooms. In an atmosphere of mutual trust and sharing, discipline becomes self-discipline, freedom becomes freedom to do, to learn, to be responsible.

MEMORIES

Dolls of long ago have all been placed upon the shelf,
Mirrors in my mind reflect the changes
in myself.
Animals that once were real, sit lifeless on the chairs
No more cuddles, no more hugs, just clear and empty stares.
Memories are all that's left of shovel—
sandbox days.
Of party dresses, mudpie messes,
Other childish ways.
Broken crayons, bits and pieces: used by first grade artists.
Remembering to stay within the lines
was always hardest.
Boys were creeps who pulled your hair and called you nasty names
But now they've changed and all insist on playing different games.
No more ribbons tied in bows, no more frilly pinafores.
Things have changed and nothing seems the way it was before.
I know that deep inside of me, a little girl remains
And how I wish there was a way to bring her back again.

MIDDLE SCHOOL

MIDDLE SCHOOL 1977-1978

The Middle School creates an environment of learning in which an emphasis is placed on the student's further education and her life. The reality of our school philosophy, "our Life Force is Love", is ensured by faculty, students and administration working together to create a school community. Students find that they are given the freedom and guidance that is necessary for growth toward social and intellectual maturity.

The religious life of the school is valued by all. Liturgies, Pennance services, Service Days, Retreat Days and times of prayer are an integral part of our life. Mathematics and Language Arts are also emphasized in the Middle School. Students benefit from the individualized approach and small classes are more fun too. A wide range of mini-courses supplements the required curriculum and allows the student a choice in her own education.

Student activities have increased significantly this year under the able leadership of Beth Bisignano and La Shalle Chambers, Co-Presidents of the Middle School, and the Student Council. Students will long remember the Fifties Day, Kris Kringle, Halloween Party, Matisse Exhibit, Fall and Spring Concerts, Oliver and the Washington Trip.

We have all grown this year to know more concretely that Jesus Christ does make a difference in our lives.

Monica sings sweetly to the puppets.

The Upper School this year did a first class production of the musical Carnival. The play was comprised of fascinating magic tricks, whimsical puppets, and a few other surprises. Roxanne Panah, Miriam Yezbick, and Monica Bisignano, from A.S.H. played the three female leads, and Jim Riley and Joe Palms, from Brother Rice, played the male leads. The chorus was portrayed by A.S.H. and Brother Rice very well. The directors of this year's production were Ms. Cathy Cliff of the Lower School and Mrs. Shelly Enlow from the Upper School.

"OLIVER" RATED A SUCCESS BY ALL

Kristen scares Nancy.

Lionel Bart's musical, "Oliver" was the fourth annual musical presented by the Academy's Middle School; and this year nearly sixty students were involved with the production. Oliver was played by eighth grader, Beth Bisignano, with other leading characters being performed by Pam Bishop, Eileen Callam, Kitty Costello, Dawn Deocampo, Nadine Deocampo, Nancy Finn, Tiffany Kilar, Pepi King, Elizabeth Latos, Paisley Lyne, Sue Majewski, Marjan Panah and Laura Toppin.

BAND AND CHORAL

During the 1977-78 school year, the Academy music program, under the direction of Ms. Barbara Exline, continued to grow in many ways. As in the past, the Band and Choral put on a spring and fall concert, a performance at Somerset Mall, and participated in both band, and solo and ensemble competitions. Each year the music performed is increasingly difficult and the result more satisfying. Besides their usual performances, the music program became involved with athletics, by forming a pep band and with liturgies by leading us in song. We all have been touched in some way by the band and choral, through either active participation or audience enjoyment.

School Community Governance 1977-1978

TRADITIONS AND GOALS

The student Community Governance program aims to develop further a learning atmosphere and school community which fulfills the goals and criteria of Sacred Heart Schools and the school philosophy at the Bloomfield Hills Academy of the Sacred Heart. In the past, Sacred Heart has had a small representational student government. In an effort to involve the total school community, this SCG program has been instituted. The program aims to develop fully the potential of every student in the areas of leadership, organization, management, and creativity. The Sacred Heart tradition will thus better thrive in the Bloomfield Hills Community.

PRINCIPLES AND GOALS

The School Community Governance will involve a set of groups intended to build and maintain community at Sacred Heart. Through it, the following principles will be realized:

1. Knowledge

Knowledge is a power for the well being or ill of others. Enjoined as we are by the Gospel values of love and caring for others, we must practice the use of knowledge to help others.

2. Fair Distribution of Responsibility

How one serves one's community may be a choice: that one serves one's community should not. It is unjust to allow a small group (faculty or students) to shoulder the direction and responsibility for the school community. Each person should serve her community since she is served by it.

3. Self-Government

Those governed in a community should help the process of government, otherwise our American heritage of freedom, democracy, and the Constitution become mere talk.

4. Learning for Life

To learn for life, one must practice the skills needed everywhere that people live and work together. Learning "people skills" means the raw experiences of the pain and joy of working with others.

5. Community

A school can be a place which one leaves as soon as one can, where one does only what is required; or it can be a place where one gives of oneself for the spirit of the whole. Learning how to build the community through giving oneself is a way to become a richer person.

6. Self-Expression

Every Sacred Heart student and faculty member has a unique contribution to the good of the whole community.

In the spring of 1977, the student body ratified the institution of the Student Community Governance program. Now a year later in the spring of 1978, it is clear that our S.C.G. program has become an integral part of every student's life in the Upper School. The staff thanks Patty Ortiz for all the devotion she has shown, and we look forward to the leadership of Judy Witt next year.

Newspaper

This year, under the supervision of co-editors Regina Baker and Charlotte Wolf and the advice of Mrs. Thornbury, The Sacred Heart Newspaper staff produced eight issues. The name was changed from "The Squirrel Road Exit" to "The Heart Beat". The student body was excited about the changes and the controversial issues which were brought up seemed to bring the most response. The paper introduced new teachers, kept the student body up to date on dances, sports, movies and plays. It became a greatly appreciated "force" in our school.

Crossroads Yearbook '78

In September of 1977, the Crossroad's yearbook staff looked toward the coming year with anticipation. We had expanded the yearbook by over thirty pages and added color pictures along with other innovations. We also had confidence that we would meet our deadlines and keep to our tight budget.

However, we experienced difficulties and found it financially as well as physically impossible to deliver the yearbook by June of 1978. Instead of fostering our disappointment, we took advantage of our expansion and included events not seen in previous issues.

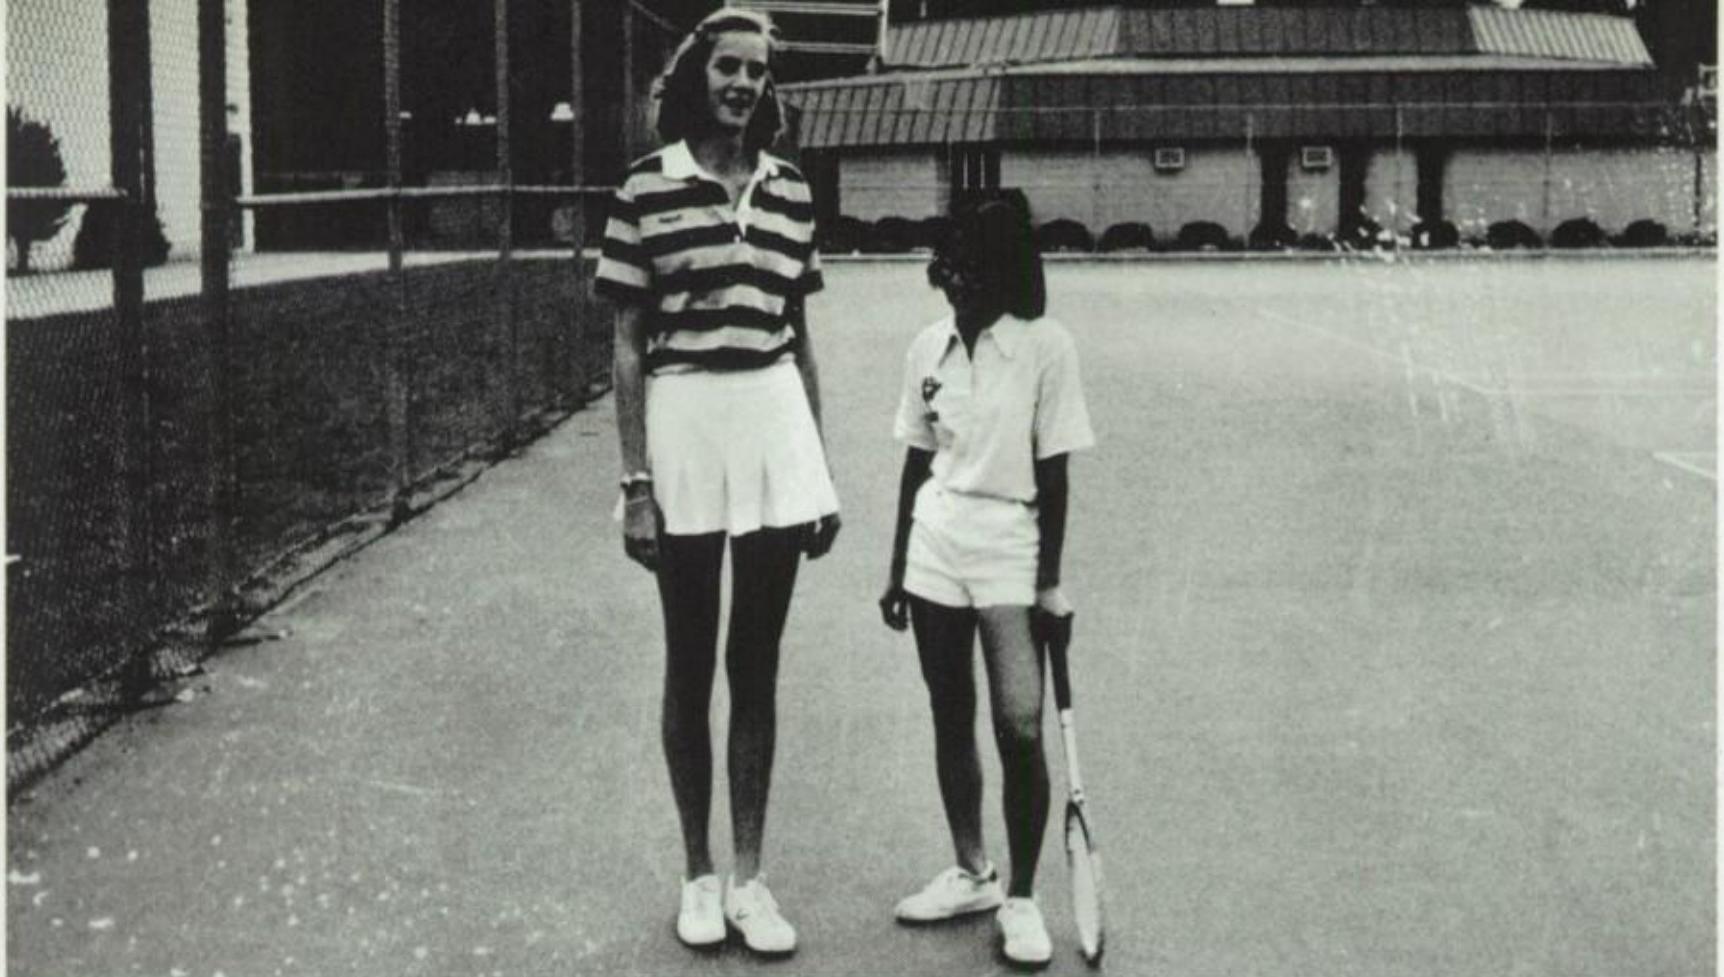

Thus, our final product, the 1978 Crossroad's yearbook, is different from other books in many aspects. We hope that we have compiled an enjoyable account of this past school year. Many thanks to all who supported our efforts and put up with our many frustrations. ATHLETICS

Field Hockey

This year the field hockey teams proved to be a great success. Four teams were formed this year because of the increased interest in the sport. Despite many injuries, this year's team showed a great deal of hard work and spirit. The varsity had an exciting season with 4 wins, 1 loss and 4 ties. The J.V. also had a successful season with 6 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie. First and second reserve had good seasons also. The height of the season was winning Playday, which gave the Gazelles the honor of playing against the Detroit Field Hockey Association. Congratulations on a fantastic season and many thanks to the seniors on the team — Dule, Barbie, Alex, Patio, Rocky, Suey and Karen!

TENNIS 1977

Our second fall tennis season was a good one! About 35 tried out for the ten member team! Team shirts gave us a new look! (Thank you Ms. Dritsas). Much practice and teamwork led to the development of skills. We won two matches and we lost five. These statistics cannot reveal the progress made, nor the closeness of the sets, nor the hard work the students put into the season. The season ended with our placing fifth (out of 14) in the Regionals. Julie Bookmyer went on to win the Class B 1st Flight Singles in the State Tournament. This was the second time for Julie; she won in 1975 also. Thank you to all who helped make this season such a success.

Basketball

This year's basketball season was a great one. Sacred Heart had nothing to be ashamed of—in fact they have everything to be proud of. The Junior Varsity provided us with a tremendous season; UNDEFEATED. What more can we say? The Varsity made us equally proud by being co-champions with Kingswood. (We're better). Mr. Goebel said, "A very good season. The girls played excellent basketball. It's one of the best teams we've had at Sacred Heart." He's right as I'm sure everyone will agree.

What more is there to say except—"We are the champions, my friend."

(Queen)

We'd also like at this time to extend our thanks to the seniors who won't be playing basketball for us anymore.

Rocky, Hulia, Dule, Alex, Suey, Patio and Karen.

Good luck in all your endeavors!

VOLLEYBALL

In the beginning of the Volleyball season, things did not look promising for our Gazelles. However, after a long losing streak, victories over University Liggett, Kingswood, and Detroit Country Day returned our spirit. The Gazelles also surprised everyone by coming back with first place gold medals from the Volleyball tournament held at Kingswood-Cranbrook this year. The five area schools participating in this tournament were Kingswood-Cranbrook, Greenhills, University Liggett School, Detroit Country Day School, and ASH.

The J.V. team also had a good season this year with five wins and four losses.

Spring Sports

This spring the A.S.H. Gazelles once again proved to be tough competitors by participating in Lacrosse and softball. The 1978 Lacrosse season was a time for A.S.H. to show its worth as a team with spirit and the "go for it" which makes a team number one! The Varsity teams record stands at 3-3 while Junior Varsity was 3-1-2. The teams also played in the 1978 Midwest Invitational Lacrosse Tournament held at Kingswood this year. Teams from all over the state and from Ohio participated. Both the J.V. and Varsity teams lived up to Sacred Heart's reputation by winning both the Junior Varsity and Varsity titles.

Softball also became an exciting sport this year. Led by coach Sr. Somerville and assistant Mrs. Lowell, 24 students made the team. Their record of 0-4 does not begin to express the spirit and effort these teams showed. The Varsity team consisted of Marita Aragones, Ann Bartush, Julie Bookmyer, Valeon Breeden, Alexandra Callam, Tracy Gibbs, Susan Holland, Sarah Lowell, Meghan McGlynn, Patty Ortiz, Michele Rachmaninoff, Maureen Vachon, Laura Yankee and Mary Yankee. Junior Varsity was Angie Belanger, Mimi Fitzer, Molly Juett, Sue McBrearty, Marta Ortiz, Patti Spina, Amy Stack, Doris Swider, Jane Ternes and Mary Witt.

UPPER SCHOOL

Freshmen

The freshman class showed an early participation in the Upper School. They went through initiation and they began to feel right at home. With the new S.C.G. program their involvement in the school became quite evident. A great number of them are "athletically inclined" and show great promise. Their unification showed through when the whole class participated in the Birthday celebrations for its various members. They hope as the years go on they will grow and share more together.

Sophomores

The Sophomore class is a large spirited group. The class is extremely involved and united. There are various students and everyone is active in more than one project. Everyone has learned an excessive amount from being together for two years, though they have two more years to go. What they have accomplished and shared together as a whole can never be repeated or recaptured. There were retreats, field trips, plays, dances, sports, and field days. All of them promising that this class will do great things.

This year, the Junior class has really gotten it together. They've got more spirit, as they showed in their skit on Mardi Gras and they have become more unified. But what the Junior class has really shown a lot of this year is leadership. With the new S.C.G. program a lot of responsibility was given to the Juniors and they did an excellent job. The Juniors showed a great sense of maturity this year and the rewards were their class rings and Senior Privileges. It's been a great year for each and every one of them as they've grown and shared; but if you ask anyone of them what was the best about their junior year they'll say: It was great because I'm that much closer to being a Senior.

As my life goes on I believe, somehow something's changed, something deep inside, a part of me.

There's a strange new light in my eyes, things I've never known, changing my life, changing me. I've been searching so long to find an answer. Now I know my life has meaning.

Now I see myself as I am, feeling very free. Life is everything, it's meant to be. When my days have come to an end, I will understand what I left behind, a part of me.

And you watch as the changes unfold
And you sort among the stories you've been told

Let the laughter fill your glass
Let your illusions last until they shatter
Whatever you might hope to find
Among the thoughts that crowd your mind.

I decided long ago
Never to walk in anyone's shadow
If I should fail
If I succeed,

Is happening to me
I found the greatest love of all
Inside of me.

Life has only just begun, as we have just begun to live.

Life is a flower; we turn a to greet it as we greet today.

Life has only just begun.

High school is the whirl of fall leaves swirling across a road at twilight.
It's a gold-plated megaphone dangling
from a dainty chain.
It's buying all the latest fashions,
then babysitting.
It's meeting friends,
watching the winning touchdown,
and experiencing the thrill and sweat
of a locker room after the struggle.
High school is cramming for an exam
that you'd rather forget.
It's a shinning bronze ring that catches the light and a chain bracelet with scattered memories.
High school is growing up, and growing up is wishing you were young again.

Don't forget, when you leave, why you came.*
